

Did you know that the Census determines how much funding states receive from the Federal Government? This lack of funding trickles down to our local towns as well. New Jersey's population was under-counted in the 2010 Census and subsequently funding was awarded to other states. Please help to make sure NJ and Florence Township are properly counted. If you haven't yet submitted your 2020 Census information, please do so as soon as possible.

Ready to fill out your own Census responses?

Go to: <https://www.census.nj.gov/>

